Rhythm Dance Company is also proud to announce The Rhythm Project, the first of its kind in Albuquerque. The Rhythm Project is a progressive series of swing dance classes for all ages and levels. No experience or partner is required and is the perfect place to begin your swing dance journey. The Rhythm Project begins Monday, April 4 with levels 1 and 2, and will open level 3 in June of 2011. Registration is now open at www.abqrhythm.com/project.

"We've never done anything like this before," says co-owner Rachel Green. "The Rhythm Project is our way to spread the love of swing dancing to Albuquerque. Before we had small series and didn't really advertise them much, but now we're going full force and our classes will be continuous such that a student can take months and months of classes without repeating any material."

The Rhythm Project features four of Albuquerque's most highly recognized and award winning swing dancers, Brett Dahlenburg, Kevin Clark, Dani Easley and Rachel Green. They are nationally recognized dancers and competitors and members of the internationally acclaimed swing dance team, Groove Juice Special.
